

UNIVERSE UNKNOWN

LYRICS BY
CHAD STEAHLY

UNIVERSE UNKNOWN

Drifting through time
Stuck and trying to find out a meaning to
The words we've heard in the universe unknown
Visions are illusions truth becomes confusion
Only flesh and bone, there must be a place
Where we don't have to wake up every day
In the Unknown, the unknown

That is where I want to go
→ That is where I want to go

In this age of science quickly trying to define us Are we spirit or blood? With machines that seem to understand what we don't know.
Will they find that life's more than a state of mind
Beyond hatred and love? There must be a place Where we don't have to wake up everyday in the Unknown, the Unknown

Chorus

When we die do we find out all of the answers why to all the questions that we've had since birth or do we just float up and become part of the universe?
(repeat)

Chorus

GRASPING FOR GHOSTS

She moves for me like a vision from
A dream of future wealth and fame
I see her for only what she shows me
And never for all the lies which under lie her name

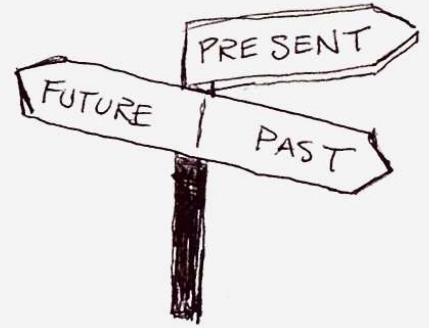

She's my sweet illusion, sweet illusion
But I'm grasping, but I'm grasping for ghosts
She's my sweet illusion, sweet illusion
But I'm grasping, but I'm grasping for ghosts
Why do I always seem to try
For what I'll never find?

I reach for her, she's like a ghost
She moves through me then she leaves me all alone
But her promises keep me blind so I can't see
That a false image is all I ever will behold

Chorus

I see people falling at her feet
For what they believe, for what they believe her to be
I see people falling at her feet
For what they believe for what they believe her to be Well, I refuse to fall like them
'Cause I know that one day
She will turn away

CHANGE

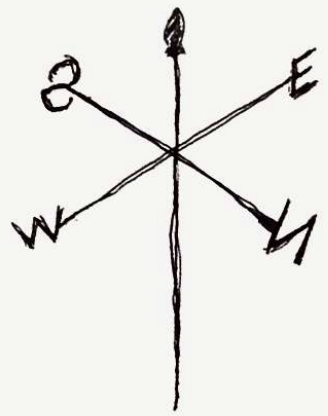

Hello, hello, now here's the story
Of how things cannot stay the same
Once you've discovered you've become too old
To think you're too young to take the blame
So, now, oh, things are gonna change

You're sick to death of all your wasted time
You've spent watching life pass you by without a sound
Just slip, slipping away was never part of the plan
You look back to try to turn things around
Saying, oh, things are gonna change
Oh, things are gonna change

You didn't think it could be this hard
You didn't think it could be this hard

Saying, oh, things are gonna change
Oh, things are gonna change

WIND'S GOTTA CHANGE

Been a hard year and a hard life
These days and months can cut like a knife
Oh, no, oh, no
(repeat)

Sometimes I wish I could rethink my direction
And rearrange it all, but someday, someday the wind's gotta change

Everyday troubles bringing me down
Life's foolish games make me feel like I'm drowning
Oh, no, oh, no
(repeat)

Chorus

It's been a hard year and a hard life
Oh, how these days and months they can cut like a knife
And everyday troubles are bringing me down
Oh, life's foolish games make me feel like I'm drowning

Chorus

GET CHA COMING, GET CHA GOING

Seems these days are crazy

Like there's nothing I can do, baby

To get more money, honey,

Or a good job to get us through

Still the bills keep coming and they keep asking for more

But there's no way to make the pay if they're not hiring

Below high class anymore

Feels like I'm carrying the weight of the moon

They've taken all that we've got but I know

They'll be back for more soon

They get cha coming, get cha going (repeat 5x)

Well, the ways these days are strange

And it all seems like a joke

You work your whole life then at 50

They lay you off and leave you for broke

Still, the bills keep coming, and they keep asking for more

But there's no way to make the pay

If you're not seen as useful anymore

Chorus

I don't want to beg. I don't want to plead

I don't want to play the fool to get what I need

I don't want to rot serving someone else's dream

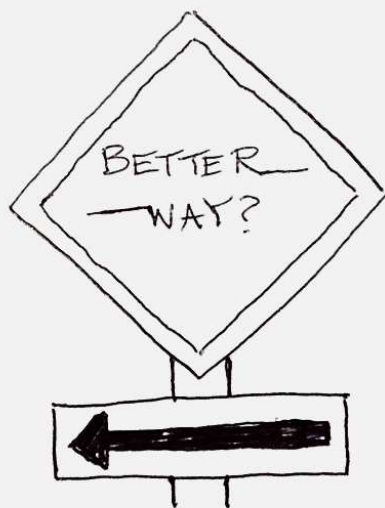

And spend my life wasting away in a dead-end job

With bills that I can't pay

Chorus

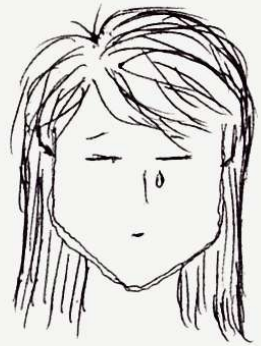

GOT TO BE A BETTER WAY

There's got to be a better way
There's got to be a better way
There's got to be a better way
There's got to be a better way
Whoa, and if one day you find
That you feel like crying
Go on and, baby, cry cry, baby, cry

CRY CRY BABY CRY

Lord, have mercy
Give you strength to keep you strong
Without which you may fall 'fore long
Oh, Lord, have mercy
They'll soon tell you "hide your tears"
But that'll just make you sad for years

So, baby, cry cry, baby, cry
Cry cry, baby, cry
Cry cry, baby, cry
Cry cry, baby, cry

Go on, sweet child
You were born into a world pre-made
But that don't make you no one's slave
So, go on, sweet child
They'll say your tears make you weak
But these fools never know what to think

Chorus

Oh, child, in this life, need to take what you want
And leave the rest behind

Sleep, my child, lay your head down for a while Dream you can fly somewhere where you never, ever,
Need to cry, but for now, cry cry, baby, cry

HIGH RISE MOON

Like the moon rising high
At the start of the night
You think you've got forever
'Fore the sun steals your light
So you fill your night with deadlines and business
Trying to gather which we can't take with us

"I wasted time, and now doth time waste me."

When we go
Nothing, no nothing else matters except the love we leave behind
When we go

→ Nothing, no nothing else matters except the love we leave behind

When we go
Nothing, no nothing else matters except the love we leave behind
So, let the love carry us on home

You think it's another day and the same old song
And you think you've got forever, but you're wrong
For, like the night, you'll be gone soon

→ You will fall, you will fall, you will fall
Like the high rise moon

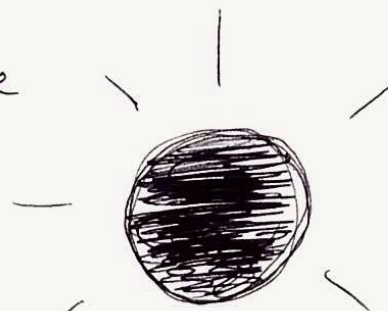

You see the stars above you in the sky
As devoid of joy and a burden to organize
You think you've got time before the sun comes
So you shine and you shine and you work and you work
But then the sun rises and you're left lying beneath the dirt

Chorus >> Verse Repeat >> Chorus

Fallen, fallen, we are fallen like the high rise moon (repeat)
Nothing matters, nothing matters
Except the love we leave behind

FOREVER HELLO

Here we are, and here we always will be Whether we're gone or just asleep
And by your side I always be
Forever hello, hello, hello, hello

I'm with you, and I'm yours to keep Whether I'm near or 'cross the shining sea.

→ Every day will be you and me
Forever hello, hello, hello, hello

And when you feel like the big old bad world
Has got you down there's no need to worry

→ Because I will always be around

From every sunrise to smiling moon
From every cup of coffee to midnight too
Every day will be me and you
Forever hello, hello, hello, hello

Repeat Verse 2

Repeat Bridge 1

Never good bye, never got to go
Only hello, hello, hello

Never good bye, never got to go
Only hello, hello, hello

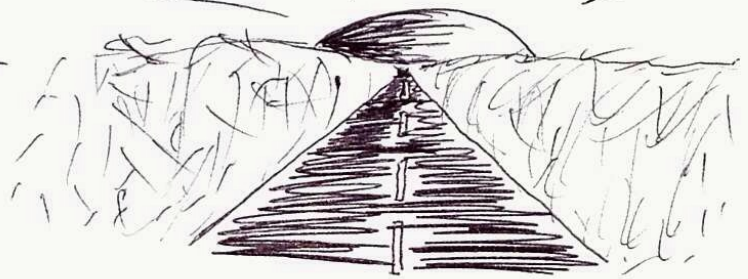

And if someday, you should find yourself alone
Just close your eyes and think of me and then you will see
That is where I always will be found
And I will always be around

BLIND ODYSSEY

(BONUS TRACK)

My whole life's been an odyssey
I've gone where I've needed and left as I pleased
I was born a long way from home
And now I'm trying to find out where I belong

But it's a long way home
It's a long way home
It's a long way home
It's a long way home

I've found comfort in love, in money, in faith
And transgressed these illusions along the way
Travelin' much farther than most I know
But then most don't care where they end up or go
But for me

Chorus

How long must I wonder? How long?

I'm going to find my way, don't know where I should Be going, but I'm gonna move along until time
Claims me, searching for where I need to go
I'm on a blind odyssey YEAH!
